To All Medicor Registered Users

Did you know you can create a list of your favorite e-journals in your “My Space” personal area. Instead of having to locate the same e-journal each time you want to use it, just go to My Space>My e-Journals instead.

Here’s How To Do It

Here’s how to add an e-journal, magazine or newsletter to your “My e-Journals” space.

After logging in to Medicor (<http://spcmsmedicor.org>):

1. Click on “Find e-Journal” in the top menu
2. Click on your preferred A-Z list of electronic journals, newspapers and magazines (Deaconess/Valley, Holy Family or Sacred Heart). A new window will open.
3. In the “Title” search box, type all or portion of the title you wish to add (e.g., New England Journal of Medicine). You can also browse a subject list using the “Category” tab function. Under Category on the left, scroll down and click “Health Sciences”. After a short delay, a list of Subcategories will appear on the right.
4. Click “GO”
5. To add a title to your list of My e-Journals, click the “Plus” symbol which appears below the title and next to the information icon
6. A new window will open showing the journal selected added to your My Space> My e-Journal list
7. Click on the title any time to review its table of contents or to read the latest full-text articles
8. Note: when the SFX services window appears be sure the correct hospital affiliation for that title is selected from the pull-down menu
9. To review the latest table of contents simply leave all fields blank and click “GO”.
